| What is the difference between Māori and general wards/constituencies? | A Some councils have established Māori wards or constituencies. For those councils, members of Māori wards / constituencies are elected by those enrolled to vote on the respective Māori electoral roll; similarly members of general wards / constituencies are elected by those enrolled to vote on the respective general electoral roll.   |

| Candidates   |  |
| What qualifications and experience do I need to be a candidate? | A You must be a New Zealand citizen and be a parliamentary elector anywhere in New Zealand. Other requirements are that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You are nominated by two electors in the area you are standing for.</li> <li>• You or your spouse/partner must not have concerns or interests in contracts over $25,000 with the council.</li> <li>• If you are subject to a Court Order under section 31 of the Protection of Personal Property Rights Act 1988, you should take legal advice.</li> <li>• If you are an employee of the council, you must resign before taking up your position as an elected member. This does not apply if the employee is elected to a community board or another local authority.</li> <li>• The rules of some councils may require you to take leave for campaigning prior to the election.</li> </ul> You do not need to reside in the area (city, district, ward, constituency, community board or local board) that you are standing for. You do not need any formal qualifications. Elected members come from all walks of life and generally have a desire to serve their community. |

| Which local government positions am I able to run for?                        | A You can choose to stand for election for any position in a city council, district council or regional council. You are able to run for mayor, councillor, community board member or local board member. If you choose to stand for more than one position there are some restrictions and rules: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You cannot stand for both a city council/district council and a regional council.</li> <li>• Where a council has both an ‘at large’ and wards system of representation, you cannot stand as councillor for both positions.</li> <li>• You cannot stand as councillor for more than one ward or constituency in a council.</li> </ul> But <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You can stand as a member for more than one community board or local board within that council (but if elected to more than one local board, you must have preselected which local board you will take).</li> <li>• You can stand for mayor, district-wide councillor or ward councillor and community board member. However, if you win more than one you will take up the highest ranked position.</li> </ul> |
| When I stand for election, can I be affiliated with an organisation or group? | A Yes, if you belong to a political party or other group, you may want to identify with them. However, you don’t have to have any affiliations. If this is your situation, you can identify as, ‘independent’ or leave the space blank when you fill out your nomination form. If you do have a specific affiliation, the electoral officer may require a letter of consent from the party, organisation or group giving its consent for you to use the affiliation.   |
| How many people do I need to nominate me?                                     | A You need two people to nominate you.  |
| Who is able to nominate me?   | A A nominator must be on the electoral roll for the area (city, district, constituency, ward, community board or local board) for which you are standing, e.g. if you are standing for election to a specific ward, you must be nominated by two electors from that ward who are on the electoral roll for that ward. You are not able to nominate yourself.  |
| When do nominations open?   | A Nominations open on Friday 15 July 2022 and close at 12 noon on Friday 12 August 2022.  |

|---|---|
| Where do I get a nomination form from?   | A Contact your council’s electoral officer for a nomination form. Your nominators must fill it in. You must agree to being nominated and will also need to sign the form. You will be able to obtain your nomination form from 15 July 2022 and close on Friday 12 August 2022 at midday. Nominations must be lodged with the electoral officer or an electoral official at the council you are standing for. Do not leave lodgement until the last day because if there any problems with the details provided there might be insufficient time to resolve them and you could miss out.                        |
| Do I need to be on the Māori electoral roll or of Māori descent if I am standing for election in a Māori Ward or Constituency? | A No. To be eligible you must be a New Zealand citizen and your name must be on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll (anywhere in New Zealand). You will need to be nominated by two electors whose names appear on the Māori electoral roll within the area of election for which you are standing. Equally if you are on the Māori electoral roll you can stand in a general ward, and will need to be nominated by two electors whose names appear on the general electoral roll within the area of election for which you are standing.   |
| How much will it cost me to stand?   | A You will need to pay a nomination deposit of $200 GST inclusive. This deposit applies to each issue (election) you stand for. The funds must be deposited with the Electoral Officer at the same time your nomination is submitted. It is recommended you pay the nomination deposit by online/internet banking (or EFTPOS or cash) noting that cheques are no longer accepted. If you poll more than 25% of the final quota as determined by the last iteration (for STV) or greater than 25% of the lowest polling successful candidate (for FPP elections) you will receive your nomination deposit back. |

| Can I withdraw my nomination as a candidate?                            | A Only if it is withdrawn before the close of nominations. You cannot withdraw voluntarily after nominations have closed. If you decide to opt out, your name will still appear on the voting document. If you do change your mind and decide not to run for election after you have been nominated, let your electoral officer know who will talk through the issues with you. However, if you become incapacitated with serious illness or injury and unlikely to be able to perform the functions and duties if elected to office, you can apply to withdraw on those grounds. You will need verification from a doctor and lawyer about your situation. See your local electoral officer if you need more information about this process.  |
| What is a candidate profile statement?                                  | A You may provide a candidate profile statement when you lodge your nomination. This is a statement of up to 150 words containing information about yourself and your policies and intentions if elected to office. The profile statement will be included in the voting packs that all electors receive. If your candidate statement is submitted in Māori and English, the information contained in each language must be substantially consistent with the information contained in the other language. Each language has to be within a 150-word limit. Your profile statement must be true and accurate. The Electoral Officer is not required to verify or investigate any information included in your statement. Your profile can include a recent passport size colour photograph. In addition, your candidate profile statement must state whether or not your principal place of residence is in the area you are seeking election, e.g., ‘My principal place of residence is in the Lambton Ward’, or ‘My principal place of residence is not in the Lambton Ward’. This is not part of the 150-word limit. See section 61 of the Local Electoral Act 2001 for more information. |
| Does a criminal record affect a person standing as a council candidate? | A No, not at all for city, district, and regional council elections.  |

|---|---|
| How long is the term of the elected member?                                 | A Three years  |
| Is the role I want to stand for full-time or part-time?                     | A This varies between councils and between roles within a council. Ask your local Electoral Officer about whether the role you want to stand for is full-time or part-time.  |
| How much will I get paid?   | A Pay and allowances are determined by the Government’s Remuneration Authority. The pay rates vary according to population size and other factors. You can see all the councils remuneration schedules by clicking on this link to the Local Government Members (2021/22) Determination. More information about how the Remuneration Authority determines pay can be found here.   |
| Do I need to be resident in the city, district or region I am standing for? | A No, but you must be on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll (anywhere in New Zealand) and provide proof that you are a New Zealand citizen.  |
| How many offices can I stand for?   | A You can stand for mayor, at large councillor or ward councillor and local/community board member. However, if elected to more than one position, you will take up the highest ranked position. You can stand as a member of the governing body (i.e. Council) and a local/community board if the triennial local election is happening at the same time. However, if you win more than one election, you must take up the highest ranked position. You cannot stand for both a regional council and one of its constituent district or city councils or a community board. |

| What does, 'at large', 'ward' and 'constituency', mean?  | A If you are standing 'at large', then you are standing for the whole council area rather than from its wards. If you are standing for a 'ward' these are parts of a council area that have been determined by population and communities of interest. These can be either general wards or Māori wards. If in a regional council, the term 'constituency' is used rather than 'ward'. |
| I am a serving police officer. Can I stand for council and continue to work as a police officer? | A Yes. There are no longer any restrictions on police officers standing for local authority elections, apart from the normal eligibility criteria.   |
| Can I raise campaign funds from donations to offset electoral expenses?                          | A Yes, you can raise funds from donations to help offset your campaign expenses. There is very specific legislation about donations and expenses which you need to abide by. (Refer to electoral officer for more information if needed.)  |

| What is the election date?   | A The elections are by postal vote. Voting documents will be delivered from Friday 16 September 2022 to Wednesday 21 September 2022. Voters can return their vote anytime from when they receive their voting documents. Votes must be received by the Electoral Officer by the close of voting on midday Saturday 8 October 2022.   |
| Can I help people vote or collect their voting documents to send in? | A No, candidates or their assistants should not collect voting documents from electors. Each elector should post or deliver their own voting document to the Electoral Officer. It is an offence (carrying a fine of up to $5,000 if convicted) to interfere in any way with an elector with the intention of influencing or advising the elector as to how he or she should vote. Candidates and their assistants should be mindful of this particularly if campaigning occurs in facilities such as rest homes or hospitals. |
| When will election results be known?                                 | A Voting closes at midday Saturday 8 October 2022. Progress results (approximately 90 per cent of votes cast) will be known early that afternoon, with preliminary results known on Sunday morning, 9 October 2022. Final results will likely to be declared on Thursday 13 October 2022. All results will be posted on your council's website.  |
| I am a New Zealand Māori, do I need to enrol on the Māori roll?      | A Not necessarily. If you are enrolling for the first time you can decide whether you want to go on the Māori Electoral Roll or the General Electoral Roll by signing the appropriate panel on the Parliamentary Elector Enrolment form. However, if you have already made that choice you will have to wait until the next Māori Option period to change, which occurs following the next census, likely in 2023. The last Māori Option period was in 2018.   |
| How do I know whether I am enrolled?                                 | A You can check your enrolment status on www.vote.nz. The Electoral Commission will be undertaking a roll update campaign in early July 2022 for the Parliamentary Electoral Roll which forms the basis of our roll for the local authority election. If you do not receive a letter in the post during late June/early July 2022, the chances are you are not enrolled or your details are incorrect.  |

| I got my voting documents but my partner didn't receive theirs.   | Before Wednesday 21 September 2022 Please wait until the mail has been delivered on Wednesday 22 September 2022. If documents are not received then please call back. After mail delivery Wednesday 22 September 2022 or if not enrolled correctly. You will need to apply for a special vote. Please phone 0800 924 723 to speak with the Deputy Electoral Officer or Electoral Official. You need to make sure you are enrolled and if not, complete an enrolment form for this. You can pick one up at any New Zealand Post Shop, one can be sent to you, or you can enrol online at www.elections.org.nz or ring 0800 36 76 56 |
| I didn't get my voting documents so I called and got a special vote. Now I have two documents which one should I use?                                   | Use the original and destroy the Special Vote  |
| I received voting documents for (children, parent) and have Power of Attorney for them can I vote for them? What should I do with the documents? | No – Power of Attorney does not apply to voting for that person. If they are overseas, you could fast post them to the person or destroy them if that is not practicable. If they are for an elderly parent who is unable to vote please destroy them by ripping/cutting them up.  |
| I received voting documents that do not belong to me and I don't know these people or where they have gone.   | Write GNA (Gone No Address) on the envelope and put them back in the mail.   |
| What is that barcode that I can see through the return envelope or on the front of the voting document?   | It is a legal requirement to scan the barcode number to mark the roll that you have voted so we can ensure that we do not receive two votes from the same person.  |

|--|---|
| How do you ensure the secrecy of my vote?               | Envelopes containing a voting document cannot be opened until there is a JP present. The JP is required to sign off that the processes used by the Electoral Officer met the legal requirements. The voter's name is not on the voting document. When the envelope is opened the only thing the Electoral Officer is looking for is that the vote for each election is valid. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• This means that for FPP they are making sure that the voters intention is clear and they have not ticked or marked more than the number of candidates that they are electing.</li> </ul>  |
| Do I have to vote? I don't know any of these candidates | No you don't have to vote. You also don't have to vote for all candidates or for all elections. But your vote is important because the people elected will be responsible for making decisions about what happens in your community for the next three years. To help you get to know about the candidates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Community organisations often hold candidate meetings where people can hear what policies the different candidates are advocating for.</li> <li>• Additionally there is a candidate profile booklet that comes out with the voting documents in which there is a photo and a statement from candidates.</li> <li>• Candidates may have their own website page, social media page(s), advertise in local newspapers or send out information to letterboxes in your area.</li> <li>• Local newspaper(s) are likely to cover information about the election.</li> </ul> |
| Do I have to post my voting document back?              | You can post them but make sure you have them in the mail by Tuesday 4 October 2022 to make sure they get back to us in time (by 12 noon Saturday 8 October 2022) However, you can also deliver to one of our voting boxes which are at either office until 12 noon Saturday 8 October.   |
| I have lost my return envelope.                         | You can use an envelope of your own and put the return address on which is The Electoral Officer, Waipā District Council, Private Bag 2402, Te Awamutu – mark the envelope "VOTING DOCUMENT"   |

| Do I have to vote for all the candidates for any issue? If I don't vote for all the candidates or all the issues on my voting document, will all my votes be informal (invalidated)? | Under FPP you can vote for as many candidates as you want but not more than the instruction states on the voting document. So if you are electing 4 councillors then you can vote for up to four candidates. You can decide not to vote for one or more of the different elections on your voting document. This does not however invalidate all your other votes.  |
| Why can't I vote for a certain candidate who is standing for a different ward, community board or other issue?   | You can only vote in the ward or constituency of a district/region in which you reside and are an elector of. You cannot vote for a candidate for the same district or region who is standing in another ward or constituency because you are not an elector of that ward or constituency. Refer to Council website 'Find out your ward'  |

|--|---|
| Why have some issues on my voting documents been voided?   | You are only entitled to vote for any issue once.Please contact the Deputy Electoral Officer or Electoral Official on 0800 924 723.   |
| My husband's paper and mine are different. He has more/less things to vote for. His list of candidates is different to mine? | Waipā District Council is using random name order on the voting documents. This could explain why the list looks different.   |
| I have received two voting documents   | Please contact the Deputy Electoral Officer or Electoral Official on 0800 924 723.  |
| Do all the staff working on the election know who I voted for?   | No, your vote remains secret under the required roll scrutiny and counting procedures.  |
| Can I help someone fill out their voting documents?  | Under the Local Electoral Act 2001, you cannot interfere or influence any person as to how they can vote.If authorised by a voter who is physically impaired, visually impaired or for whom English is a second language, a person can assist them to vote as directed by the voter.  |
| What happens to all the voting documents after the elections?  | They are delivered to the District Court and kept for 21 days so that the Court can access them should there be any application for recount or petition for inquiry.After 21 days the court is responsible for destroying them.   |
| Do I get a vote for the DHB?   | NO DHB election in 2022   |
| FPP  | This is the First Past the Post voting system. The candidate or candidates that gets the most votes wins.You should mark those you want to vote for with a tick in the circle. Do not vote for more than the number of candidates shown in the instructions.  |
| Election Results  |   |
| When will we know the results of the election?   | Progress and preliminary results will be announced as soon as possible after 12 noon on Saturday 8 October 2022 www.waipadc.govt.nzThe official results will be announced when the final count is complete and special votes have been checked which will be between Thursday 13 October 2022 – Wednesday 19 October 2022. |

| How will I find out?  | CandidatesWill be advised as soon as possible after Preliminary results are known. This may be by phone where possible. The VotersPreliminary Results will be released to the media and placed on our website as soon as possible after noon on Saturday 8 October and on office doors as soon as available.                               |
| What do I need to do if I want to challenge the results of the election?  | Please contact the Deputy Electoral Officer or Electoral Official on 0800 924 723.  |
| Elected Members  |  |
| When do elected members take up their roles?  | Elected members take up office the day after the official result has been declared. However, they cannot act until they have sworn the oath of office which is usually at the first meeting of council. This first meeting is usually held as soon as practicable after the final election results are known, usually sometime towards the end of November. |
| Who are elected members responsible to?   | Ultimately the elected members' final responsibility is to the local community. The Minister of Local Government and the Auditor-General do have a role in ensuring that councils follow the law.   |
| Do elected members get paid and if so how much?   | This is set by the Remuneration Authority. Some expenses are also reimbursed.   |
| Would being an elected member take up much time?  | The time commitment varies depending on the role and the size of the local authority/community you are representing. Refer the website to view 'Candidate Information Booklet' or phone 0800 924 723 to request one posted out.  |
| Complaints   |  |
| I have a complaint about Electoral signage? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The signs don't have the required authorisation on them.</li> <li>• The signs have been pulled over.</li> <li>• The signs are bigger than they should be.</li> <li>• What locations can signs be erected?</li> <li>• When can they be erected and when must they be pulled down?</li> </ul> | For a complaint, refer CRM to Planning Enforcement staff.
