Alana MACKAY

My principal place of residence is in the Cambridge Subdivision area.

I have enjoyed my first term on the Cambridge Community Board and would like to continue to be an advocate and representative for our wonderful town. I grew up in Cambridge, went to school here, and want future generations to treasure it like I do.

With a solid work ethic and history of community involvement, I'm a hands-on person who likes to get things done. I have experience in local business and event management (I am currently chair of the Cambridge Autumn Festival Trust), as well as a passion for our people and natural environment.

Growth continues to be a challenge, as is the Government's significant programme of reform, but Cambridge is a strong and positive community, and I believe that we can work together, alongside community organisations, councillors, and council staff to deliver positive local outcomes for the future and protect the things that make Cambridge special.
